

Job description Community Artist

Job Summary

The Community Artist will be responsible for developing and delivering a series of workshops in schools and/or care homes as part of our 'One thing...' Lottery funded intergenerational project.

Role: Intergenerational community artist

Contract: Freelance

Hours: Half days £100 per half day - number of days may vary depending on your availability.

Location: Hybrid. Out on location (where workshops take place - Maldon and Chelmsford) and at home.

Responsible for: This role is responsible for developing the workshop and outcomes from the intergenerational project - One thing.

Line Managed By: Project Manager

About the role

The post holder will work with the Project Manager to establish and deliver a new program of intergenerational workshops across three schools. You will also work as part of the project team that includes a project manager and volunteers. The workshops will be animation/film and craft based. Basic Stop Motion training can be provided to the right candidate.

Job Requirements

- Experience of working with community groups on creative projects, ideally children of KS2 age and older generations.
- Excellent workshop design and delivery skills and interpersonal skills.
- Interest in the use of film and animation with participants.
- Commitment to the safeguarding of all participants.

For more information on the requirements of the role please see the job description

Job Responsibilities

- Delivery of an intergenerational workshops using animation and craft - with the support of the Project Manager.

- Focused on outcomes of the workshops and able to work behind the scenes to prepare for workshops and to work on final outcome films so that the project is successful.
- Providing data on engagement and participation to project manager.

For more information on the responsibilities of the role please see the job description.

Any questions or queries email: Vicci Button - Project Manager viccibutton@gmail.com
Please send your CV and a cover letter to the above email too.